

WASHINGTON – Congressman John Olver (D-MA) announced that the Dalton Police Department

The grant was awarded through U.S. Department of Justice's Office of Community Oriented Policing

These grants allow law enforcement agencies to pay for the salary and benefits to hire additional

"Building a positive relationship with local schools is a critical part of community policing," Olver said.

Currently the Dalton Police Department is providing part-time protection at the middle and high schools.

"I am extremely excited about this grant. This is a wonderful addition to the community policing program."

Since its inception, the Office of Community Oriented Police Services of the U.S. Department of Justice

For more information, contact Dan Filiault, Chief of the Dalton Police Department, at 413-684-0300.

###